

N. Neville Reid leaves Mayer Brown to join Fox, Hefter, Swibel, Levin & Carroll, LLP

Chicago, Illinois (May 26, 2009) -- After 22 years at Mayer Brown, Neville Reid has joined Fox, Hefter, Swibel, Levin & Carroll, LLP, where he will become Co-Chair of the firm's Insolvency and Bankruptcy Group. "Neville is a highly talented lawyer with a wealth of experience in bankruptcy, insolvency and restructuring issues. He adds terrific depth and breadth to our firm in these areas, which are particularly vital in today's financial climate," commented Fox, Hefter's co-managing partners, Daniel Hefter and Lawrence Swibel. "We are delighted that he has chosen to join our firm, which continues to grow by attracting top talent at both the partner and associate level."

Reid, a graduate of Harvard College, magna cum laude, and Harvard Law School, is a nationally recognized bankruptcy and workout attorney. He was designated an Illinois "Super Lawyer" by the Law & Politics organization and Chicago Magazine. Since 1994 Neville has been a member of the select group of bankruptcy trustees in Chicago, and in that capacity has been appointed by bankruptcy judges from time to time to investigate and administer the assets and affairs of bankrupt entities.

Fox, Hefter, Swibel, Levin & Carroll, LLP is a leading mid-size firm in Chicago. Founded in 2000, the firm's partners are graduates of elite law schools and formerly practiced at premiere nationally-recognized law firms. The firm has grown exclusively through the hiring of leading lawyers from top 100 AM Law rated law firms. Fox Hefter's business model is to provide clients with large-firm quality representation at significantly lower rates and with greater responsiveness. Fox, Hefter's clients include an array of manufacturing, banking, retail, hotel, real estate, private equity, and hedge fund clients.
